To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Sir,

In submitting herewith the petition of K.Sithamma, wife of the deceased K. Ramachandra Rao, who was a pensionab servant and a permanent teacher of this Municipality, requ ing sanction of the Government for compassionate gratuity, I beg to state as follows:-

2. The death of the said Ramachandra Rao occured on Monday the 10th August 36 at 7.30 P.M. His death was due to dysentry and some other complications.

3 He entered service as a teacher on 1-4-1897 on Rs. 8 per mensem. He rose to Rs. 10/- from 1-11-1904 from which date his service counts for pension. His services were transferred to the Municipality from 1-4-1913. Just before death he was holding the position of the Headmastership of an Elementary School on a permanent salary of Rs. 32/- per mensem. Pensionary contribution has been adjusted on his behalf by the Municipality till the end of July 1936.

L.Sy dept E.&P.A. dept no. Lg 10/9. Lg no 31987. 1.Ar 11-9-36. 27187 10-8-36 1-11-04 10-9-31

4. Overburdened with the maintenance of a big family of 8 members and the education of his sons, he could not make any provision for his family. He has not left behind any movable or immovable property for his family to ~~live~~ lie upon. His family circumstances at the time of his death were so miserably adverse that his last rites had to be conducted on public donations. It is a great pity that his family and children are left adrift in this world with out any support. None of his sons is an earning member.

5. I therefore, strongly recommend the case of the petitioner, K.Sethamma, the wife of the deceased servant, as one of genuine hardship and request the benavolent Government to be pleased to sanction compassionate gratuity at an early date. His service register is herewith submitted for favour of perusal and return.

Respected Sir,

I, Sitamma, wife of the deceased K. Ramachandra Rao, who was a pensionable servant and a permanent teacher in the Hospet Municipality, beg to bring the following few lines for favour of your kind considerations

2. My husband, K. Ramachandra Rao entered service as a teacher in this Municipality on 1-4-1897 and continued to serve in that capacity till 10-8-1936 when he suddenly expired. His death was due to dysentry and some other complications. He was holding a pensionable post all these years and pensionary contribution on his behalf was paid by the Municipality. Starting on an initial salary of Rs. 8/- per mensem, he gradually rose to the position of the Headmaster of an Elementary school and the salary at the time of his death was Rs. 32 per mensem. He had to maintai a big family of 8 members and in addition to it, he had to look to the education of his sons, so much so, the above mentioned narrow circumstances and his rate of pay were such that it did not enable him to make any provision for his family. He has not even insured his life and he has not left behind any landed property.

His death at this stage is a terrible shock to the family. He leaves behind him an aged wife i.e. myself and four sons. I have been thus stranded in this world with a heavy load of misery and with practically no means of subsistence.

3. I therefore beg to invite your kind attention to Government order No. 120 dated 22-3-1932 (copy enclosed) wherein the Government have passed the rules relating to the grant of compassionate gratuities. By virtue of the above Government Order quoted above, I am entitled to get a compassionate gratuity of 12 months pay of my husband. Taking into consideration my husband's faithful record of service for the past 39 years in this Municipality and also my helpless and pitiable condition, I request you to kindly recommend to Government for granting me the compassionate gratuity according to rules.

For which act of kindness I will ever pray.

I beg to remain,

Respected Sir,

Your most obedient Servant.

Pension - Compassionate ~~grantuities~~ gratuities - Reduction of provision for 1931-32 on account of financial stringency - Heads of departments informed.

O R D E R:-

The Government consider that at a time of financial stringency such as the present, they would not be justified in continuing to incur expenditure upon the ~~grantuities~~ grant of compassionate gratuities to the families of deceased Government servants to the extent to which such expenditure has risen during the past few years. The Government have therefore decided to reduce the ~~provisions~~ provision of Rs.75,000 made for the purpose in the Budget estimates for 1931-32 to Rs.42,000. The grants for the rest of the year will be limited within the reduced provision only to those cases which are the most deserving and where it is clear that the circumstances of the deceased (his rate of pay, etc.) were such that he could not, even, if he would, have made any provision for his family. All heads of departments are requested to bear this in mind when dealing with applications for compassionate gratuities which are addressed to them, and when making their recommendations upon applications addressed to Government and forwarded by them.

2. The Government also observe that in some cases applications for the grant of compassionate gratuities are submitted to them without full information regarding the pecuniary circumstances of the families of the deceased Government servants. This necessitates further references resulting in considerable delays in the disposal of applications. All heads of departments are therefore requested to cause in all cases independent enquiries to be made (preferably through the local revenue authorities) on the following points:-

(1) The pecuniary circumstances in detail, whether the deceased had left any property, movable or immovable (such as house or lands, life insurance policies, contribution
